College for Kids Scholarship Information

Merced College solicits funds for College for Kids scholarships each year. The scholarship fund is designed to either cover full or partial College for Kids program class registrations. Scholarships will be given as funds are available and upon approval of your application by the scholarship committee. Limited funds are available and will be granted on a case-by-case basis. A separate form must be completed for each applicant.

Applications that are submitted with incomplete information will not be considered.

Scholarships are available thanks to the support of...

...and others in the community!

Applications can be submitted after the deadline and students will be added to the waitlist. If funds become available, additional scholarships will be granted.

Please call (209) 384-6224 or visit www.mercedcommunityservices.com for more information.
